BOULANGER'S MANIFESO

APPEAL TO MEN OF GOOD WILL

Paris, 30—The Cocarde publishes a manifesto of Boulanger thanking his electors for their support and stating that the National Republican Committee appeals to all men of good will to give back to France her rank in the comity of nations.

Rome, 30—Sr. Biancheri has been elected Speaker of the House.

THE SICK MAN BULLYING THE PRESS.

New York 28th—Boulanger majority reached 80,000 votes. Order prevailed in spite of excitement. Boulevards crowded. Mob opposed Boulanger who has been returned by the middle classes. Future doubtful.

What does Germany think? Quien sabe?

Some suppose Panama Canal won the election for the general, helped by fear of radicals in face of a clerical reaction.

Will Germany look upon the election as a local incident? or on Boulanger as the man of the Revanche?

War correspondents of two papers already notified to be ready.

London, 28th.—Times says Englishmen want to know the full meaning of Bismarck's assertion that Germany need only deal with Great Britain in the Samoa Question.

The Standard says that France and Paris have never made a greater blunder than in the Boulanger election. Since 1870 Paris never committed greater folly. A war is now probably on the "tapis."

Paris, 29th.—Boulanger's victory led to the resignation of the Cabinet: Carnot would not accept same.

Republican Press consider the election a drawback, but doubt if Boulanger have influence to intimidate the coalition that is now forming against Caesarism.

Anarchical Press look on the election as the signal for the downfall of Parliamentary Government.

The Boulanger Press maintain that the election means fall of Government.

In Cabinet Council the eventuality of disorder discussed. The Ministers think dissolution of Chambers necessary, and general elections to follow in April.

Some deputies asserted that the Government must take severe steps against Boulanger.

Among the Deputies it is announced that General Campenon will form new Cabinet.

Carnot is sounding the leading political lights, and is resolved to quietly keep his post and await eventualities.

Journal de Debats says:—"Last night several Radical deputies met and urged the necessity of forming an energetic Cabinet to prosecute Boulanger on a charge of high treason. The meeting broke up undecided."

Berlin, 29th—Political journals look on the triumph of Boulanger as an ill omen to France.

Vienna, 29th—Wiener Tagblatt states that it is impossible to believe that France will return to her conciliatory programme, the supporters of which are disappearing before the triumphant adventurers: immediate peril of France and Germany clashing.

Constantinople, 30th—Municipality levies 70 piastres tax on editors and printing offices; additional burden on Greek publishers. The Neologos has been closed up. The Ambassadors are using their influence against the extortion.

London, 30—The Admiralty estimates which will be presented soon increase the number of marines by 500.

Berlin, 30—Communications from Washington to the New York Sun state that the American Foreign Secretary declared that the conduct of Germany up to the present could afford no plea for war with the Union, and that such an eventuality would only arise if armed troops and violence were employed to repel the German aggression in Samoa. The question, however, might bring on a war. The Samoa reports go to Congress. The President does not care to take any measures lest hostilities be precipitated.

CHRISTMAS IN LONDON

CHRISTMAS IN IRELAND

Dec. 26th.

Yesterday was a lovely day, balmy as Spring, very different from any Christmas Day in the last ten years. You might have thought you were in Seville. The churches were beautifully decorated, and the day passed off well. I did not see a drunken man, and this leads me to observe that drunkenness seems declining in England. The railways did a large traffic since Saturday, numbers of people going down to the country, and many rural cousins coming up to London for the holidays. Business was suspended on Saturday, the shops being all shut on Monday, and few of them open even to-day, this being Boxing Day.

I regret to say that some gloom was thrown over the East end by another Whitechapel murder, the victim being again a woman of the same class, one Alice Downey from Whitechapel, whose body was found at Poplar, about a mile distant, bearing marks of strangulation, but not mutilated. The police-surgeon declared on the inquest that he believed all the Whitechapel murders, of which this is the 10th, have been done in the same way and by the same hand, the cold blooded assassin in every case lassoing his victim with a small piece of whipcord, and choking her before she was aware almost of the attack. As usual the police have no trace, and are completely baffled. It is now generally supposed that the assassin is not insane, but takes a fiendish delight in crime.

In the political world there has been nothing of an uneasy character this Christmas except on the side of France. A fresh difficulty has sprung up in connexion with N. American fisheries, owing to some alleged unfairness by the Newfoundland authorities towards French fishermen. It would seem as if we were destined to be constantly in hot water with the U. States, Canada or France on this point. General Boulanger made yesterday another manifesto declaring his intention to contest the vacant seat of Deputy for Paris with the Government candidate. If he win it will be perhaps the "coup de grace" to an expiring form of Government; indeed, as far as public opinion goes, the 3rd Republic is dead.

Italy is actively preparing for war as if Mr. Crispi means to be ready to take the field by the Ides of March. The Pope is fully aware of the critical state of affairs, and may leave the Vatican at any moment. If Italy come out of the contest on the winning side she will probably recover Nice, Savoy and Corsica from France, and take Trieste and Dalmatia from Austria. If she be on the losing side the result may be fatal to Crispi and his master.

Dec. 26th.

The Irish landlords are "having their innings', and going ahead very briskly. They are quite right, from their point of view, for nobody can tell how long this Government may be in office. Advices from Donegal, Clare and Limerick, as also from Kerry and elsewhere, announce a regular campaign of evictions, especially by Lord Clanrickard, Lord Lansdowne and other well-known exterminators. Mr. Balfour preceeded to Dublin on Monday, doubtless to give them the fullest assistance in his power. They will make a merry Christmas season of it. Lord Clanrickard succeeded last week in getting the Court of Dublin to reverse the verdict of £5,000 that had been given against him at the Court of Assize. It is just 46 years since Earl Denman, in the House of Lords, declared that the system of justice in Ireland was "a mockery, a delusion and a snare". History repeats itself: were he still living he would say the same of Ireland to-day.

This Christmas will be the last for thousands of industrious tenant-farmers in Ireland, but this is in a manner inevitable, for as the land cannot support both, you must take your choice and either have an end of the landlords or of the cultivators. You may ask, how can we exterminate 3,000,000? Easy enough; it is simply a question of cavalry and constabulary. With 30,000 well-trained, well-appointed troops the Irish Chief Secretary can leave every family houseless.

This may appear a cruel policy and utterly at variance with Lord Ashbourne's Act for buying out the landlords. But, you see, the real effect of this Act is to give £260,000 to Lord Abercorn, £200,000 to another absentee landlord, and so on. Not a shilling of the money goes to Ireland, or at least remains there. By-and-by it will be said that the Imperial Parliament has advanced £20,000,000 for Irish purposes, which will be of course an utter falsehood. There is a wanton expenditure of public money, but Irishmen are not asked whether they approve of it or not.

An evil destiny pursues every act of the British Parliament in its dealings with Ireland. The Land Act was spoiled by the Commissioners refusing to reduce arrears. On the other hand I read in yesterday's Times that the Special Commission for the Crofters of Western Scotland have reduced the rents in the Island of Lewis 35 per cent. and the arrears 65 per cent. This will enable the Crofters to have a happy Christmas. But in Ireland the landlords offer to abate only 10 per cent.

THE MENDOZA REVOLUTION.

THE EPILOGUE.

Buenos Ayres, January 24th.

To Don Tiburcio Benegas, Governor of Mendoza.

I have received Your Excellency's telegram informing me that you have been reinstated in the Government. The decree so reinstating you closes the interference of the National authorities in local matters.

Your Excellency should now endeavour to seek in the public opinion of your province and in your own authority the means of restoring tranquillity and confidence, by enforcing public order and respect for individual liberty.

The threats of further vengeance and a repetition of the scenes of the day of your deposition, when the National troops are withdrawn, are an unmerited insult, and Your Excellency should not attach too much importance to them.

The presence or absence of National troops can neither confer nor take away authority, because this latter is founded on the Constitution, which is ever present in all parts, supported by all the power of the nation: and should anyone have doubts as to this, he has only to scan the principles of order and Government laid down therein to convince himself of his error.

As for the arms belonging to the nation now in your city, they must be returned to the National arsenals, not for any reason of local order in Mendoza, but simply because said arsenals are the only places where they should be found.

If I have deserved the gratitude of the people of Mendoza by reinstating you—which I have done without any regard to persons, or the political passions evolved by the local contest,—the people themselves can best express that gratitude by their own conduct, as I believe that the people are ever the masters of their own destinies.

I firmly believe that rectitude, calmness, and a spirit of conciliation can restore to your province the tranquillity it so much requires.

Your sincere friend,
C. Pellegrini.

One would imagine that an old Roman of the early days of the Republic had penned the above. It reads like a fragment of ancient history when the dissolving and lubricating agents of our civilization had not got to the marrow of the old republican system. It sounds like a shrill and discordant note in the present political concert.

Verily, it is an admirable telegram; it has a ring of true metal, and speaks the republican spirit of the man who penned it. For terseness, brevity and impressiveness of style it is superb: for bold, undaunted republicanism it is incomparable. It will flash along all the wires of the country as a second pledge of constitutional principles, and it will become famous for the sincerity of its motives and the opportunity of its appearance. It has already had the effect of raising to a still higher level in the confidence of his countrymen the political figure of Dr. Pellegrini, the Vice-President.

Had the unfortunate Governor of Mendoza sought inspiration in the above message—does he need an oracle and a tripod to read through the lines full of meaning and warning?—he would not to-day afford his countrymen the sorry picture of a Governor stooping from his great height as supreme authority to wrestle in the electoral arena, of a Governor invested in the character of a partizan sinking into the depths of a compromise with those who attacked his authority, arrested his person and deprived him of his power, thus trampling on that power and authority and tearing to pieces a constitution.

Such a position is, to say the least, humiliating: it implies on the part of the Governor an abdication of personal dignity and a collapse of moral principles; it implies on the part of those with whom the compromise is settled a certain political cynicism that confirms their right to employ violence and to intimidate.

Is then disorder at a premium? and authority at a discount? Are we to establish a melancholy parallel between depreciated paper money and depreciated politics? It is not to be hoped, although the Mendoza compromise leads to that conviction. Will such precedents establish political jurisprudence in the future? Such compromises establishing impunity, nay applause, for seditious acts may be termed conciliation, but all seem to forget that thereby we are sowing the wind to reap the whirlwind; and it would have been far more dignified for the Governor of Mendoza to seek in the spirit of Dr. Pellegrini's message the means of keeping order in his province, rather than resort to a compromise that gives a stamp of legality to violence and oppression. The bad example is set, and there are few redeeming features to relieve the enormity of the error.

SIR ROBERT MORIER AND COUNT HERBERT BIRMARCK.

TO THE EDITOR OF THE DAILY NEWS.

Sir,—I shall be obliged by the publication of the enclosed correspondence in The Daily News.—I am, your obedient, humble servant,

R. B. D. MORIER.

St. Petersburg, 31st December, 1888.

British Embassy, St. Petersburg, Dec. 19, 1888.

Monsieur le Comte,—The Kölnische Zeitung, of Sunday, the 16th instant, which I have just received, contains a scurrilous attack upon me; in which, amongst other charges, it brings that of my having, when her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Darmstadt in 1870, betrayed the movements of the German army to Marshal Bazaine. I should have treated this outburst with the supreme contempt with which similar libellous attacks on the part of a portion of the German press have hitherto inspired me were it not that I chanced when in England, last July, to hear that your Excellency had stated to more persons than one that a German military attaché at Madrid had reported that Marshal Bazaine had made to him a so-called revelation in the above sense. I did not do your Excellency the injustice of supposing that you believed in the truth of a story so palpably absurd, and with the imprint of a foul and impossible calumny so stamped upon it as to fall to pieces the moment it was seriously considered, nor insult you by crediting you with a cynicism so abnormal, as to suppose that a man honoured with the friendship and confidence of the late Emperor Frederick could have been so unutterably base as to use that friendship and confidence to betray him and his army to the enemy. Nevertheless I deemed it expedient to write without loss of time to Marshal Bazaine, and inquire into the truth of the alleged conversation. I received from him the emphatic denial—a copy of which, together with a copy of my letter to him, I have the honour to enclose herewith.

With this documentary proof of the incorrectness of the supposed conversation in your hands, I appeal, without any doubt as to the result, to your Excellency as a gentleman and man of honour to cause an immediate contradiction to be inserted into the Nord-Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung of the foul and infamous libel and calumny contained in the Kölnische Zeitung.—I have the honour to remain, Monsieur le Comte, your Excellency's obedient, humble servant (Signed)

R. B. D. Morier.

(Translation.)

40, Clarges-street, London, July 25, 1888.

Monsieur le Maréchal,—It is said at Berlin that, in a conversation which your Excellency is alleged to have had with a military attaché of the German Embassy at Madrid, you stated that it was in consequence of a telegram which I addressed to you from Darmstadt, where I was then acting as her Britannic Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires, and in which I gave you details as to the movements of the Crown Prince's army, that you were enabled to attack the Germans, and to cause them sensible losses.

I need not tell you that I absolutely disbelieve in this apocryphal conversation, but it is important that I should be able to prove by a declaration coming directly from your Excellency the absurdity of a myth which, childish and clumsily imagined as it is, is none the less insulting both to you and to me.

Be so kind as to send me your reply as soon as possible through Mr. William Macpherson, her Britannic Majesty's Consul at the English Embassy, and believe the expression of my sentiments of perfect consideration. (Signed) R. B. D. Morier, Late British Minister at Madrid, and at present the Queen's Ambassador at St. Petersburg.

(Translation.)

Madrid, August 8.

Monsieur l'Ambassadeur,—Being absent from Madrid to take baths, I was unable to reply to your Excellency's letter on the subject of the alleged military conversation, which is an entirely clumsy fancy on the part of its supposed author. I had not the honour of knowing your Excellency before or during the war of 1870 and deny in the most unqualifiable manner this apocryphal conversation, so outside all possible probability. I deny having had a conversation of the kind with any one whatsoever.

Forgive my bad writing, but my system has been so tried by the moral suffering I have endured for 20 years that my nerves feel the effects.

Your kindness to me at Madrid is an agreable recollection which I do not forget, and I beg your Excellency to accept my best respectful sentiments.

(Signed) Marshal Bazaine.

His Excellency Sir Robert Morier.

(Translation)

Friedrichsruh, Dec. 25 1888.

I have had the honour to receive your Excellency's letter of the 19th instant. I regret that neither its contents nor its tone enable me to comply with your astonishing demand, and to step out of the limits imposed upon me by my official position in regard to the German Press.

Accept the assurance of my most distinguished consideration.

(Signed) H, V. BISMARK.

British Embassy, St. Petersburg, Dec. 31 1888.

Monsieur le Comte,—I have the honour to acknowledge the receipt of your Excellency's letter, dated Christmas Day, in reply to mine of the 19th instant, and to state that as you decline to dissociate yourself, either publicly or privately, from the monstrous calumny of my supposed betrayal of the Crown Prince's army to Marshal Bazaine, or to give publicity to the proofs with which I have furnished you in refutation of the story, I see no other course open to me but to publish our correspondence. For, right or wrong, the belief is general that the Berlin contributor to the Kolnische Zeitung derives his information from official quarters, and he himself does his best to produce this impression by appealing to sources of information necessarily secret and official. I do not say that I myself share this belief; but it is sufficient that it exists and is general. I must, therefore, in view of the refusal contained in your Excellency's letter, appeal under my own name to that publicity, which my anonymous calumniators have so treacherously used against me.

I have the honour to be, Monsieur le Comte, your Excellency's obedient, humble servant,

(Signed) R. B. D. MORIER.

P. S.—It is not my intention ever again to notice the attacks of the Kolnische Zeitung and other analogous prints. Their refutation will be furnished beforehand by the absurdity of this latest libel, which will discredit any subsequent slanders that may be brought against me.

URUGUAYAN RETROSPECT

(From the Montevideo River Plate Times)

NAVIGATION

Another datum which proves the progress of commerce is the increasing number of vessels, and above all their tonnage register.

We will take the figures of several years to make this plain.

In 1886 there were 545 sailing vessels and 611 steamers that entered the port of Montevideo, from abroad, giving together a total of 1,232,416 tons.

In 1887 the tonnage of vessels from abroad was 1,346,715.

In 1888, the total of vessels arrived from abroad reached 1389, of which 787 were steamers and 602 sailing vessels, the total tons register reaching 1,622,723.

From the coast and rivers 2661 vessels have arrived with a tonnage of 482,258.

IMPORTATION AND EXPORTATION

The figures that would show in the most conclusive manner the productive capacity of the Republic are as yet wanting, but at the same time we can assert that they are superior to those of 1887.

That year a notable want of equilibrium was produced between the imports and exports, owing to the fact, that whilst greater facilities for credit and increased confidence in the future had raised the imports from $20,194,655, their total in 1886, to $24,615,944,—on the other hand, the general depreciation felt that year in the produce of the country and the closure of the Brazilian ports made the exports go down from $23,811,986, their total in 1886, to $18,679,196, so that we were more than 5 millions in deficit with foreign commerce.

The Custom House Revenue, the shipping movement and the daily evidence that consumption is not restricted leads us to believe that if the total of imports has fallen a little it cannot have been much. On the other hand we have the certainty that exportation has returned to its normal amount, with the re-establishment of commercial relations and the increased value of the produce of the country.

For these reasons it is more than probable that we have returned to the 25 millions as exported in 1885.

It may then be affirmed that the imports and exports together form this year a total of from 48 to 50 million dollars gold. A really colossal total, considering it proceeds from a country of scarcely 700,000 inhabitants. This shows an average of foreign commerce of about $70 gold, rather more than less, per inhabitant.

The following table shows how favourably Uruguay compares, in her commercial activity, with other American nations.

In examining this table it must once more be borne in mind that the figures opposite Uruguay represent gold dollars, whilst most of the other countries are represented by depreciated paper dollars:

Country	Population	Importation	Exportation
		$	$
Arg. Rep.	3,435,286	95,408,000	6,983,500
Brazil	12,932,375	106,650,710	105,270,274
Bolivia	1,952,079	872,400	1,227,800
Chile	2,526,969	48,232,802	52,683,001

Nicaragua	400,000	1,462,495	1,944,754
Peru	3,000,000	9,183,737	6,614,658
Paraguay	1,337,431	1,215,750	1,118,250
Salvador	651,130	2,427,663	4,754,648
St. Do'ngo	504,000	2,101,369	5,544,090
Uruguay	596,493	20,315,822	23,943,850
Venezuela	2,198,320	9,183,655	16,460,857
French Possessions	383,132	13,000,000	20,000,000
Danish do	33,763	1,218,860	500,000
English "	6,215,005	—	—
Dutch "	56,860	—	—
Total.	52,979,821	404,392,382	426,842,722

Since the date of the above, the situation of some of the States has improved, and especially so that of this Republic.

The proportion of each of the American countries may be stated as follows, taking the figures as they stand; Brazil 25 o/o, Argentine Republic 20 o/o, Cuba 13 o/o, Chile 12 o/o and Uruguay 8 o/o the 22 o/o remaining being divided amongst the other countries (17) which figure in the table.

By reducing the figures to the same standard, gold, the proportions of the Argentine Republic and Uruguay would have to be altered, very much in favour of Uruguay.

Comparing Brazil and the Argentine Republic we see that Brazil with 13 million inhabitants had 211 millions of foreign commerce, or $16.7 per inhabitant and on looking at the production we can easily see that Brazil produced 8 dollars per inhabitant.

The foreign commerce of the Argentine Republic reached 165 millions, and taking population at 3½ millions, each inhabitant is represented by 47 $. almost three times the result achieved by Brazil, and taking the exportation alone, each inhabitant of the Argentine Republic produced $ 19,07, more than double the production of each Brazilian.

These figures show the greater industrial activity of the Argentine Republic in which taking the exportation as the expression of productive power, it may be observed that one Argentine, in respect to economy, is equal to 2 1/2 Brazilians.

The general result of all the 22 countries is 8 dollars exportation per inhabitant, Uruguay appearing in the first place with an export of 40$ per inhabitant, Cuba with 25 $ and Chile 21 $. Still it must be again remembered that these calculation are made in most cases in legal but depreciated paper money, while those of Uruguay are in gold, which has in the Argentine Republic one third premium.

If the reduction to an equal standard were made it would be seen that each Brazilian exports less than $ 8, each Argentine about $ 13 and each Orientrl $ 40

RAILWAYS

In this matter we are rather behindhand. In the year 1887 we had, we may say, no other line than the Central Uruguay, and its branch from 25 de Agosto to San Jose. The number is complete if we add the 97 kiloms of the old North Western, from Salto to Yacui, the 19 kiloms of railways to the Corrales and the 34 of the line to Pando.

In total we possesed 456 kiloms.

The advancement shown in the results obtained by the Central line, judging from their official data as published for 1887 and 1888, is a very strong proof, besides the gurantee of the State of the advantages the country offers to European capital to invest there in railways.

The Republic has now 625 kiloms of railway constructed and 317 in rapid construction.

TREATMENT OF IMMIGRANTS.

To the Editor of the STANDARD.

B. Ayres, 26th Jan. 1889

Dear Sir—

During the past few days, circumstances have led the writer to visit several times the Immigrants' Hotel at Retiro, and I should like with your permission to draw the attention of the British residents in this country to a few observations which have occurred to me in consequence.

The condition of British emigrants who arrive at this hotel is truly deplorable. They find that they are altogether prevented from communicating their wants, by the fact that "not one of the officials in the hotel can speak one word of English." They are thus thrown at once upon their own resources in a foreign country, to struggle with a strange people and a strange language, and loud are their lamentations at their lot and furious their denunciations of the false promises which have led them to leave their homes, for "the land flowing with milk and honey."

Probably, you will agree with me, Sir, in the belief, that when these people once break through the crust of difficulty which surrounds their entry here,—that they soon begin to get on, and that those who remain here and persevere—if they are capable, industrious and sober,—have before them at the present time better chances of earning the proverbial crust than in any other country in the world.

Reference to the Directory will show that all European countries which send here large numbers of emigrants have in Buenos Ayres some philanthropic association for the purpose of giving relief and information to new-comers. My residence here has been only short, but I am told no such British society exists. As, however, there are rumours, apparently well founded, of large numbers of British emigrants, either on their way, or about to leave Europe, I would appeal to you to use your influence with the wealthy British residents in the Republic to establish some such society. Even if the result were only sufficient to pay some Englishman to visit the Hotel three or four times a week, in order to give information to those who require it, the money would be well spent. Such a society would also be a distinct benefit to all British residents, as they would then know to whom to apply for newly arrived British workmen or servants.

Furthermore, the representatives of the British Government in this Republic should insist upon the Immigration Department placing at least one English-speaking official on the staff of the Labour Office at the Hotel. Less than that the Argentine Government cannot refuse to do, after the promises which are made in Europe, and which all require to be explained away when the people arrive here.

Yours truly,
C. H. Lewis.

Railway Items.

THE RAILWAY ACT TO THE FORE.—INSPECTOR FERNANDEZ'S REPORT.—SALE OF THE WILKINSON CONCESSION.

There are three articles in the Railway Act which several, if not all, the railroad companies here appear either to ignore or have forgotten. These articles provide that the proceeds of fines shall be applied towards the stimulation of primary instruction; that all objects lost by passengers in the carriages or stations shall be set apart by the companies, who must advertise with a view to find the owners, and that if within 12 months no owner or owners be forthcoming these objects shall be sold by auction, and the proceeds shall be applied for the already mentioned plausible cause of education. These articles, we repeat, have been completely forgotten by the companies, and Dr. Araoz, whose eagle eye is ever on the look-out to save the public from being fleeced, has sent a circular to the different managers calling their attention to this excusable forgetfulness on their part. It is always well to keep the Railway Act before the companies, for there can be no doubt that if the Act were observed both in the spirit and letter, the public would not feel the terrible desire, prompted by a just exasperation and righteous indignation, to lynch the station-masters, and the occupation of the Inspector, like Othello's, would be gone. But we are as yet far from a railway milennium.

Writing from Rosario, under date Jan. 27, Inspector Fernandez reports on the working of the B. Ayres and Rosario Line, which is one of the best worked in the country. The greatest regularity prevails in the service, and the trains arrive to the minute in Rosario Station. At a moment when confusion seems to have seized every line and every time-table in the country, this punctuality reflects great credit on the management. The rolling-stock is kept in good repair, and nothing can equal the cleanliness of the sleeping-saloons. The staff is sufficiently numerous to deal with any emergency. Mr. Fernandez says that since the opening of their new Station in Rosario, the Company have had to cope with many difficulties. It appears the station is somewhat inconveniently situated and is not very accessible. It lies to the North-west of Rosario, at a considerable distance from the central and busy part of the city, and as the streets leading to it are even worse than the Flores Road, the ruts would swallow up a bullock-cart, and the local jehus will not brave the dangers of the route under five dollars, which is after all insignificant, when we consider that drivers here often ask 30 dollars to take you to Flores, and even then require a guarantee that the coach will not be smashed up. Mr. Fernandez, moreover says that the local trams are often delayed two and three hours before they can get to the station. All this injures of course the railway. It would, perhaps, suit the company to pave the road at their own cost.

We have received a lengthy communication in reference to the East Argentine Railway from a gentleman who has recently travelled over that line. Owing to the extreme length of the letter, which examines the line, its present, past, and future, from every point of view, we are reduced to the necessity of making a few passing remarks only. Our correspondent describes Concordia with graphic pen, dwells on its growth and prosperity, and shews that the place can supply traffic for lines of much greater length than the East Argentine. He then wanders into history, traces events since the termination of the Paraguayan war, and describes the fortunes of the line up to date. He then "pitches into" the concern with a vigor that has completely startled us.

The Engineers' Department have reported favorably on the plans for the railway from Goya to Monte Caseros. A few alterations have been suggested.

Governor Paz signed an important document on Tuesday approving the transfer of the Wilkinson concession to Mr John Todd, who purchases it for the B. Ayres Ensenada and South Coast Railway. It is especially stipulated that a guarantee shall be given that the concession shall be carried out to the letter. In this connexion Mr R Eastman and Mr Buratowich have given their signatures and deposited 100,000 dollars as guarantee of the faithful execution of the project. Our friends in the south need therefore entertain no misgiving as to the intentions of the concessionaries. Further, we may state that Messrs Wilkinson & Co. have paid the Provincial Government $1,268,000, which was the price arranged for the purchase of the Magdalena Branch. Governor Paz has been thus enabled to raise the mortgage of this line.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

Yesterday was rather a demi-semi kind of a day. Galveston was missed at breakfast; the weather began to growl again; the gold premium and umbrellas went up a little, and "voila tout". Something was said about a Pigtail invasion, as it appears that an Ambassador from Pekin is shortly expected in Rio to arrange for the admission of Celestials into that empire; and, if so they won't be long in creeping in here, unless they be lynched when they cross the frontier. Negroes and Chinese wont be long about bringing Brazil to grief.

The letter in another column from Mr. Lewis, about the difficulty English speaking emigrants encounter on landing here is worthy of very serious attention. We have over and over again proposed a society such as our correspondent suggests. It could be easily formed and supported.

The bathing and briny news from Montevideo yesterday was that the Argentino Hotel at Pocitos had closed its doors, and that the "swell mob" (male and female) are swarming there and doing a "rasp(a)"-ing business.

We have received tickets for the two days meeting at Lujan on Saturday and Sunday next, but in consequence of the whole strength of our staff (including our Sporting Editor and his assistant satellites) being engaged for the return cricket match with the Pacific R'y C. C. at Palermo on Sunday, "The Standard" will not be represented there. The managers of the meeting, nevertheless, have our best wishes.

The cricket match at Palermo on Saturday will be Residents in River Plate in 1881, or previously, versus The Club. Much interest is attached to this match, and we are sure to see a large number of visitors on the ground.

The Western Railway train that used to leave Central Station at 5.40 now leaves Plaza Once at 6.15. Passengers taking any of the trains that go that way about 4 o'clock may, by great good luck, catch it.

Our Asuncion exchanges received yesterday announce the arrival there of Marshal Deodoro and the Brazilian troops. The gallant warior landed and paid a five minutes visit to the President of the Republic, clanked about the town with his staff for an hour, and then went on board again and steamed up stream for Matto Grosso.

Saturday will be a strict church and general holiday, and numerous pic-nics, excursions, shooting parties and what not have been arranged for the two days.

We have to thank our constant friend and subscriber Mr. Peuser, the well-known publisher, for sending us yesterday the 1st 2nd and 3rd volumes of "Memorias de un Viejo," (third edition) by Victor Galvez. It is on sale at all the book stores. This work is so well known that we not again recommend it.

The lists of "conocido" people booked for the Paris Exhibition as given in the papers show what a fashionable exodus there will be this year. We banish with a shudder the bare suggestion of a thought of war breaking out on the old Continent, and the scuttling back to Buenos Aires, that would inevitably ensue. Mosson won't fight this year if he can help it. If! Aye, there's the rub. But he wants his Bastille Exhibition. At least the very small Republican vein in him does; but he is evidently getting disgusted with Republicanism as fast as he well can. The following well-known citizens are already booked to leave for Europe in February, March and April alone What will it be in May June and July? Maria Del Campo and wife, Pastor S. Obligado and wife, Vicente L. Casares and wife Mendez and wife, C. Pellegrini and wife, Esteban Castaing and wife, Saturnino J. There was a very interesting letter in the Prensa yesterday from "dear, dirty Dublin," and signed "Du Villa." It treats of the pavement of London, Paris and this city, and proves beyond yea or nay that Wood and nothing else is the pavement required in the Argentine capital. For years we have advocated the same thing; but the stone-men are as yet too strong for the reformers. A change is at hand. Lord Mayor Cranwell is doing his best to pave the way for it (no pun meant), and we expect great things from Mr Seeber when he assumes city office.

A Montevidean grocer has burst up and appealed to his creditors, owing to disastrous speculations on 'Change. The cobbler should stick to his last and the grocer to his tea and sugar. Neither of them has any business on the Bolsa.

All the English employees of the Santa Fe State Railways will leave their posts to-morrow. Five Lilles, no doubt, want to put in their own men. It's the same mistake made by the notorious Argentine Great Western when the Company took it over from Mr Clark and put in English officials who could n't speak a word of Spanish. Since then the line has gone even farther than the three D's to the bad.

Judge Avalos has used the Habeas Corpus whip and made the Rosario police liberate the fourteen Italians illegally arrested there last week, to make food for powder. All the Italians in the town are furious, and it is said their Minister will insist on indemnity.

Latest advices from Mendoza report dancing, dining and fun of all kinds going on there to celebrate the Conciliation of parties. One of the revolutionary papers says that the present situation is a pure sham, and that another row may be looked for. We rather incline to this view ourselves.

There was a Villikins and his Dinah affair in one of the city hotels on Monday. A young French engineer took "a cup of cold pison" because his lady-love proved unkind, so unkind that Commissary Straw had to try his eloquence on her to induce her to go and coax her silly engineer to swallow an antidote.

There is a Certain Person to pay in Las Heras, where the Juez de Paz persists in clinging to office against the unanimous wish of the people, and in spite of his resignation having been accepted some time ago. Funny man this Juez. There was a long letter in the Prensa yesterday about him.

Sackmann & Co. have secured the contract for the wooden flooring of the Central Produce Market—seven squares square!! This is a tolerably big business.

Oh! The Carnival nuisance is to be revived, when three quarters of the population hoped it would n't. The Lord Mayor named a "comision" yesterday to collect funds for the foolery. The best thing for the respectable citizens to do is to keep their purses hermatically closed, and the whole thing must fall to the ground.

Two men were blown to fragments on Tuesday by the explosion of the boiler of a steam flour mill in Calle Alberti. The question is, when was the boiler last inspected?

Canon Cordoba has been appointed Chaplain General of the Army, a post that has been vacant for a long time. His rank is that of Colonel.

Pergamino intends, about the Ides of March, to give a somewhat negative proof of its great progress by opening a Beggars' Asylum.

By all that's discountable! Another duel in which a bank manager is to figure as principal and do his best to wing a well-known broker is expected to come off this morning in La Plata. Only a few days ago we expressed our horror at a bank manager in Entre Rios going out to shoot an escribano; but words fail us to give utterance to our feelings at the bare idea of a bank manager making a hole in a well-known broker, probably one of his best customers. Can such things be? As well imagine an editor anxious to shoot the head of a News Agency, or a polished purser, who sends him late papers. It's an atrocious anomaly.

The Rosario papers speak rather harshly of Mr. Ross the tramway man, and advise him to give up tramming and start a gin factory. The public there now seem dead against him, though he was the most popular man in the town when he had the iron foundry.

Carnival has commenced in Mercedes, with the usual masked balls. Soon the water-throwing will begin, though Lent is more than a month off yet. Mercedes enjoys the reputation of throwing more water during Carnival than all the other camp towns rolled into one.

A new way to pay new debts. Government has made Engineer Bovio a present of the famous chata Como which took him such a lot of time and trouble to remove from the Riachuelo. This is his sole remuneration for the job. He will make a good thing out of it, if the barge does not require too much repairing.

The Minister of Justice is to have his official residence in what remains of the old Cabildo after the part of it required to make way for the Boulevard is razed.

The Socialists of this city held a meeting in Grutli's brewery in Calle Cerrito last night. The manifesto they have distributed is very fiery indeed.

The Lord Mayor took a run down to Genoa in Buenos Ayres yesterday and ordered Peter Mendoza Street to be paved: but all the other thoroughfares must be content for the present with "vasura" ashes.

The city tramways carried over four millions of passengers last month. This is tremendous. Does anybody ever walk?

The Public School children are to have the great treat of a visit to the Admiral Brown while she is in the South Basin. This will be a grand holiday for the small fry.

Mr. Sumblad, Chief of the Immigration Department, found on arriving in Rosario on Monday that all the press had said in denunciation of the scandalous treatment of emigrants there was true. Mr. S. is now taking effective measures to prevent a repetition of these cruel abuses.

Mr. Villalongo will resume the reins of the great carrier company that bears his name to-morrow. He has brought a number of new ideas from Europe to [illegible] the concern ahead. Government signed yesterday the contract made between the Post Master General and this [illegible] for the carriage of mails and Post[illegible] in the city for the round sum of [illegible] nats per month.

Good news for Western Railway travellers. The line is to be thoroughly relaid from Plaza Once to Lujan. People taking an evening stroll on the line often shudder when a train passes, such is the way in which the engines and carriages heave and pitch, just like a ship at sea. There is great danger in anything beyond a snail's pace, with the line in its present state.

A very sporting game of polo English v Scotch, on Saturday next at Temperley on the arrival of the 1.45 train. Great preparations have been made for the reception of ladies, and the committee expressed a fervent aspiration that their tea and cake will prove unexceptionable.

The surveys made in Chuput Territory of the lands given in concession to Messrs. Chiniff, Rossi and Piaggio have been approved by Government. The survey of Mr. Ledesma's concession in the Chaco has also been approved, and that of Ronvier and Co's land in Formosa.

NOTES FROM WASHINGTON

Udolpho Wolfe's Son & Co. Secure the Exclusive Right to the Trade-mark or Label "W. A. S."— The Imitation thereof is Felony.

It is learned from Washington that the United States Patent Office has granted, under date of October 9th inst, to the famous house of Udolpho Wolfe's Son & Co., the exclusive right to a label having the words "W. A. S." as applied to schnapps. This label has been used on the top of every bottle of the "Wolfe's Schiedam Aromatic Schnapps" for nearly ten years past, but it is only now that the title has been registered. It is done for the better protection of the house and their customers, and the reporter who writes this article learns that Messrs Udolpho Wolfe's Son & Co. intend to prosecute with the utmost severity of the law, all infringements upon their rights in this label. Their schnapps has been upon the market for forty years [illegible] now sold and used [illegible] medical [illegible] and in point of fact it is one of the most valuable adjuncts to the modern "materia medica" at present known to science.

Owing to the enormous demand for this article, unscrupulous parties have been led to imitate, and in future, purchasers would do well to see that the letters "W. A. S." are on the bottle. To imitate this label is felony.

Advanced dentistry
Professor Horsey's
North American system of inserting teeth without plates
This noted specialist has been with us for the past four months, during which time he has performed hundreds of operations for the most prominent and leading citizens of this Republic.
By this process where only a few roots or stumps of old teeth remain the "bridge work" obviates the necessity of wearing plates of any discription.
It is permanent, cleanly, and natural in appearance; and the operation as compared with filling or extracting teeth is painless. It restores broken or badly decayed teeth and roots, to life long usefulness. All are invited to call and examine this incomparably beautiful work.
It is the greatest step in advanced dentistry and the best the dental profession has yet made. A descriptive pamphlet of this process may be had on application or sent by mail to any address.

Those about to attend weddings may feel interested in knowing that there is no change in the fashion of wedding cake, which is as black, heavy and awfully indigestible as as ever, and guaranteed to produce the same distressing dreams. This does not affect the bride and bridegroom, who when under 50 or 60 are generally too much absorbed in "Love's Young Dream" to swallow bride-cake. The eloquent speech the bride-groom is bound to deliver generally knocks all appetite out of him for a week.

Another new Hackney Carriage Company is announced. At the rate enterprise is rushing in this direction there will soon be a carriage and pair for every inhabitant of the city.

A New York paper says:—"It was reported not long ago that Remenyi, the violinist, had been drowned at sea. He has practically said "Fiddlestrings" to this rumor as an order for a supply of cagtut has been received from him in Philadelphia from Cape Town, Africa.

The Razon of Montevideo has published a lot of rather spicy details of the Mendoza muddle which, if printed here would raise what our North American cousins so expressively call "snakes".

The wooden house again. The fierce blaze in Calle Solis, corner of Alsina on Monday is another sharp warning to the Municipality to abolish all wooden structures in this city. A haberdashery, a cake shop and a tailoring establishment were all destroyed, and a "botica" had a narrow escape. Damage 20,000 Nats. Nobody was cooked alive; but most of the residents on the premises were arrested till the police enquire into all the circumstances. Whenever a place is insured, this is generally the fate of the tenants now after a blaze. It's curious, but true. Down with the wooden houses say we! Otherwise the whole capital of the republic is bound to end in smoke some day.

Business to-day was a reflection of the course of affairs yesterday, gold being more or less stationary, and National Bank Shares desperately weak. However, the effect of the settlement may now be considered practically discounted, with small probability in favour of the appearance of any new features. It is nevertheless apprehended that the tremendous differences on the month's speculation may cause some difficulties. National Bank Shares are lower on the month by fully 15 points, whilst gold, though erratic of late, at first declared itself bullish to an extent of some 10 per cent. All this combined means very heavy losses, and unless they are divided amongst a fairly large portion of the fraternity, the consequences may be disastrous. Up to the present, however, everything is working most satisfactorily and smoothly, giving hopes of a quiet settlement.

Operations in gold at the first hour embraced nearly 3½ millions, of which the bulk was required for to-morrow; the quotation opened at 154, ran quickly up to 154.60, and then began to weaken, falling steadily off to 153.30, at which it closed with sellers. For cash 390,900 changed hands, opening at 154.20, falling to 153.50, and rising again to 153.60, finally closed at 153.40. For February the tendency was always for a decline, the rate opening at 153 and closing half a point lower. Cedulas were in fair demand, and generally dealt in at firm rates, some large lots of N being disposed of at 77.10 to 77. The sovereign stock was weighted down by sellers, falling from 262.50 to 260.50, after which it rallied to 261.50, at which it closed; for February there were plenty of buyers, some remaining over at 264 50, the closing rate. Credito Real tumbled to 147, and only closed half a point higher. La Plata Moles closed at 120, Catalinas at 150, and Constructors at 136, none showing any marked firmness.

The following is a summary of operations effected this morning at the first ring:—

From Rosario an important sale of property is reported, being 1,200 square yards, between Cordoba, Rioja, Uruguay, and Dorrega, for 232,000 m/n, or say at the rate of 20 dollars the square yard; buyers, Messrs. Peña and Moreno; sellers, a syndicate of capitalists. Business on 'Change dull, and very small attendance of brokers, sales of gold embracing 260,000 for end of month at 153 and 152.90, 16,000 for end of February at 152.10-20, and 50,000 for March at 152. The s.s. Belgrano has been dispatched for Hamburg with general cargo and the s.s. Hogarth in ballast for Rio and New York. The Gellivara is hourly expected with a large consignment of railway material.

It seems that matters are not quite so bad in the Bolsa at the Mount as was supposed, and it is now said that the Obras Company are in a position to maintain their shares at the liquidation, even without the 2 millions of the Banco Nacional. This is mere rumour, but it will bear some consolation to the unlucky shareholders. As was announced in our special correspondent's wire from Montevideo this morning, there is little reliance to be placed on the prospects of the loan. It is calculated that the Custom House returns this month will reach the high figure of 800,000 dols. A project for construction of mole and two large customs deposits at Villa del Cerro will be shortly laid before the Executive; the conditions are said to be most favourable for the latter.

Advices from Concordia report arrivals of produce small, due to the impassable state of the roads. Some wools have been disposed of for Montevideo at firm rates. The demand for novillos continues brisk, 15,000 head having been recently bought for the Gualeguaychu saladero at 15 dollars. The San Carlos Meat Extract establishment is offering 12 gold dollars for novillos, and will require some 30,000 head for the slaughter. The Mocoretá and Concordia saladeros are busy preparing for work. 200 Belgian immigrants have arrived for the Clara railway, but as there is no immigrants' hotel there is much difficulty in housing them.

The oil factory in Santo Tome has been purchased by a syndicate and will be worked by a company about to be formed.

Advices received by the mail of the meeting of the shareholders of the Central Argentine Land Company announce that the resolutions approving of the winding up of the company were unanimously approved. As will be remembered this step is taken in order to start a new company with similar object but on a larger scale, and the manner in which it is to be effected is as follows: "Under the suggested arrangement it is proposed that the new company shall issue to the shareholders of the present company one fully-paid 5 per cent cumulative preference share of £4, in exchange for each £1 share in the existing company, the annual dividend on the increased nominal value of the share being thus equal to 20 per cent on the original paid up capital. An equal number of ordinary shares of £4 each will be offered at par to the proprietors "pro rata," and upon these it is not proposed at present to call up more than 10s per share. After 10 per cent dividend shall have been paid up on the amount called up of the ordinary capital, any surplus to be equally divided between the holders of preference and ordinary shares in proportion to the number of shares held by them. As opportunities occur for further profitable investment it is intended to issue debentures or debenture stock on such terms as may hereafter be determined."

The Minister of Finance issued a lengthy decree yesterday regarding the payment of bounty on frozen meat export; also the tariff of charges for the South Basin of the Buenos Ayres Port Works.

The Vice-President held a lengthy Cabinet Council to-day. We hear that the subject under discussion was the budget for this year and the most summary means of reducing same to the lowest level possible figure. Dr. Pacheco said it was necessary to supress several items of expenditure which met no immediate requirements. All the other ministers assented and a round million was there and then knocked off the Budget of 1889. Bravo!

Business at the second hour in spite of being the eve of the liquidation was fairly quiet, gold declining to 152.60 for to-morrow and 152¼ for end February whilst Nat. Bank rallied to 262 for end month and 264½ for end of February, Credito Real, however, tumbled to 147 and 132½ for same dates and even Constructors though sustaining their rates were a trifle weak. Cedulas were in fair demand at normal rates.

The exchange market shews further signs of giving way and 47¼d was spoken of to-day as the rate. It is expected that rates must soon rally as large amounts have to be drawn for against produce.

The European Mail says: "Thanks chiefly to the growers of stock in the Argentine Republic, the breeders of shorthorns in this country have done remarkably well with their sales during the past year. There were in all 1,594 animals sold by public auction, realising £44,013, or an average of £27 15s 8d; whereas in 1887 there were 1,480 sold, realising £37,966, or an average of £25 13s. The highest prices realised in 1888 were by Lord Feversham's herd, at the sale of which last September one animal sold for a thousand guineas, and the average of 42 animals was £88 4s 6d."

It was reported to-day that Mr. Segundo Flores in representation of a syndicate of capitalists has purchased 620,000 yards on the Boulevard Circumvalacion at reserved rate, also the Carmen colony, containing about a square league, between Rojas and Pergamino, and almost entirely under cultivation.

"La Italia" Insurance Company has declared a dividend of 40 o/o.

The Elbe, Royal Mail Packet, brought £100,000 in specie.

The American barque Fillid has been chartered to load linseed at San Nicolas. A cargo of this cereal is a rarity owing to the losses caused by the rains.

A wire was received to-day on the Bolsa from London announcing opening of London wool auctions with sustained prices, large attendance of buyers and fair demand; 9000 bales were disposed of. It seems that though prices were sustained the tendency is weak and this has reacted on the market here in which the prices have already declined.

The La Veloce packets will all touch at Marseilles from May next to give greater facilities to parties wishing to visit the Paris Exhibition.

A telegram from the Canaries announces the arrival there of two of the packets for the new company, Lloyd del Plata.

In discounts money is reported fairly easy at 10 o/o against stocks. The National Bank discounted largely to day and the Provincial Bank will get to work after the liquidation.

The Government approved to-day the "Las Himanas", a colliery concern to be worked with a capital of 200,000 nats in 200 shares of 1000 dollars each. The coal fields are in the Province of San Juan.

The Royal Mail Packet Atrato arrived at Pernambuco to day en route for the Plate.

The s.s. G. B. Lavarello has arrived in Montevideo from Genoa with 700 passengers for Buenos Aires and 120 for Rosario.

The President of the Provincial Mortgage Bank has advised the Executive that the following loans in cedulas of the N series have been passed by the Board on Government lands; 15,000 cedulas 248 hectareas of the Salado quintas; 20 cedulas per hectare on 16,600 Municipal chacras in Bolivar, and 20 per hectare on 9,180 in Pavon; also an extension to 40,000 cedulas per league on lots 6, 11, 17 and 21 of the 11th Section; 40 cedulas per hectare on the townlands of Villa Colon, 20 cedulas per hectare on 17,711 hectares of the Juarez chacras, 30 cedulas per hectare on 4,966 hectareas in Mar Chiquita, and 30,000 cedulas per league on Bahia Blanca lands. The total of these mortgages sums up to the round amount of $2,650,000, and the lands will afterwards be sold at auction by Provincial Government.
